IN THE DISTRICT COURT

____ JUDICIAL DISTRICT

DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

PLAINTIFFS' ORIGINAL PETITION AND REQUEST FOR DISCLOSURE

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE:

NOW COMES Joel Benitez ("Mr. Benitez" and "Plaintiff"), in the above-numbered and styled cause, complaining of Defendant Tyson Foods, Inc., ("Tyson Foods"), and files this their Original Petition and Request for Disclosure, and for cause of action would respectfully show the Court as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff brings this action as an employee to recover for the damages he sustained as a direct and proximate result of Tyson Foods' failure to use ordinary care to protect him from dangers which Tyson Foods knew, or should have known, existed at the time of his injury.

II. PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Joel Benitez is a resident of Arlington, Tarrant County, Texas.

3. Defendant Tyson Foods, Inc. is a foreign business corporation duly authorized to do business in the State of Texas, and may be served with process by and through its registered agent, CT Corporation System, 1999 Bryan Street, Suite 900, Dallas, Texas 75201-3136.

III. VENUE AND JURISDICTION

4. Venue is proper in Dallas County, Texas in that the events giving rise to this cause of action and claims in this lawsuit occurred in Dallas County, Texas.

5. Jurisdiction is proper in that the damages sought well exceed the minimum jurisdictional limits of the Court.

IV. DISCOVERY

6. Plaintiff intends to conduct discovery under Level 3 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure pending the submission of an Agreed Scheduling Order between the parties and approval and entry of the Order by the Court.

V. FACTS

7. On April 6, 2016, Mr. Benitez, an employee of Tyson for 13 years, was assigned the relatively new task of operating a pepperoni slicing machine. The machine was equipped with a guarding system designed to prevent the operator's hands from coming into contact with the slicing blade of the machine. That guarding system was operated by a pneumatic air pressure system separate and apart from the electrical system, which operated the motor that powered the slicing blade. The inherent risk of this dual power supply system is obvious only to the person turning off the safety system, not to the machine operator. The air pressure which operates the guarding system can be turned off, deactivating the safety system, while the electrical system continues to allow the operator of the machine to cut pepperoni, but in the absence of an operational guarding mechanism designed to protect the operator of the machine.

8. While Mr. Benitez was operating his machine slicing pepperoni, another employee of Tyson Foods, Gonzola Casa, left his station and turned off the air compressor, thus inactivating the guarding equipment on the slicer that Mr. Benitez was operating. Without air pressure, the guard which normally would have prevented Mr. Benitez's hand from coming into contact with the blade of the slicer gave way, and Mr. Benitez's dominant right hand pushed into the spinning blade.

9. Mr. Casas, a Tyson employee, followed no lockout tag-out type of safety procedure to avoid this accident. He gave no verbal warning to Mr. Benitez of his intention to deactivate the air supply and the safety system on the slicer machines.

10. Due to the negligent actions of Mr. Casas, Mr. Benitez sliced off a majority of the last digit of his right index, and middle fingers and almost half of the last digit on the right ring finger.

11. Mr. Benitez was immediately transported to Baylor University Medical Center. Imaging revealed open fractures and tissue loss of right index, middle and ring fingers. Due to the serious nature of his injuries, he underwent surgical repair to place pins in the broken bones in the remaining portion of his fingers, skin grafts to replace areas of skin that were sliced away from the remaining bones of his fingers. Mr. Benitez had two pins surgically implanted in his right ring finger and Mr. Benitez was off work for almost 12 weeks. He underwent extensive physical therapy to help aid in recovery from his injury.

12. Mr. Benitez has subsequently not regained the full use of his right index, middle and pinky finger; he has lost much flexibility, stability, and usage of his right hand and four fingers as documented by medical professionals.

13. Additionally, at all times relevant to the incident made the basis of this lawsuit, Tyson Food, Inc., was a non-subscriber to the Texas Workers Compensation Program.

VI. CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT 1: NEGLIGENCE

14. Plaintiffs adopts and incorporates each and every allegation of the aforementioned paragraphs as if set forth herein verbatim.

15. The incident made the basis of this lawsuit and Plaintiff's resulting injuries and damages were proximately caused by the negligent conduct of Tyson Foods in one or more of the following respects:

- a) In failing to provide and maintain a place of employment that was reasonably safe and healthful for Joel Benitez;
- b) In failing to train employees to perform inherently dangerous and hazardous tasks, such as operating a pepperoni slicing machine;
- c) In failing to train its employees to perform lockout and/or tag-out type of safety procedure to avoid this accident;
- d) In failing to train employees how to operate the pepperoni slicing machine by turning off the air compressor thus inactivating the guarding equipment on the slicing machine would have been operated by a person of ordinary prudence under the same or similar circumstances;
- e) In failing to use ordinary care to supervise pepperoni slicer, especially when engaged in an occupation which could be hazardous to life and limb and required skill or experience;
- f) In employing untrained and/or un-experienced employees to perform inherently dangerous and hazardous tasks, such as operating a pepperoni slicing machine;
- g) In failing to install, maintain, and use methods, processes, devices, and safeguards that were reasonably necessary to protect the life, health, and safety of Joel Benitez;
- h) In failing to provide employees with safety instructions and/or safety meetings;
- i) In failing to post safety rules and regulations so as to be reasonably conspicuous to Joel Benitez;
- j) In failing to inform and/or warn employees of the potential dangers in performing dangerous and hazardous duties;
- k) By entrusting the pepperoni slicer to an employee who they knew was not properly trained to operate the pepperoni slicer;

- l) By entrusting the pepperoni slicer to an employee who they knew operated the pepperoni slicer in an unsafe manner;
- m) By stressing productivity over safety; and,
- n) By reprimanding employees who shut down the production line to clear jams in the slicing equipment.

16. The lack of training and supervision on the part of Tyson Foods exposed Joel Benitez to an unnecessary and unreasonable risk of harm which foreseeably lead to him being physically harmed by a pepperoni slicer.

17. Each of these foregoing acts and omissions, whether taken singularly or in combination, constituted negligence on behalf of Tyson Foods which was the proximate cause of the incident made the basis of this lawsuit and the subsequent injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff.

COUNT 2: VICARIOUS LIABILITY

18. Plaintiff adopts and incorporates each and every allegation of the aforementioned paragraphs as if set forth herein verbatim and alleges that Tyson Foods are vicariously liable for the negligent conduct of their employee, which proximately caused the incident made the basis of this lawsuit and the resulting injuries and damages of the Plaintiff.

19. At all times precedent, upon information and belief, the pepperoni slicer under the employ of Tyson Foods and was authorized by his employer to maintain and operate the pepperoni slicer.

20. At the time of the incident made the basis of this lawsuit, Mr. Casas was operating the pepperoni slicer in the performance of his job and was acting within the scope of his employer's business.

21. Under the theory of respondeat superior, Defendant Tyson Foods is therefore liable for the damages suffered by Plaintiff as a result of the negligence of their employee, Mr. Casas.

22. Mr. Casas turned off the air supply to his machine knowing that his action would de-activate the safety guarding system to Mr. Benitez's slicing machine.

23. Mr. Casas did not warn Mr. Benitez of his actions.

24. Mr. Casas did not follow any lock out and/or tag out procedure to shut down all of the affected slicing machines before he de-activated the safety guarding system.

VII. DAMAGES

25. As a direct and proximate cause of Tyson Foods' negligence, Joel Benitez sustained severe bodily injuries which included, but are not limited to, losing three finger tips from his dominant right hand. Some of the injuries sustained by Mr. Benitez are permanent in nature. The injuries mentioned have had an adverse effect on Mr. Benitez's health and wellbeing, and as a further result of the nature and consequences of his injuries, Mr. Benitez has suffered physical pain and suffering, anguish and physical impairment and in all reasonable probability will continue to suffer in this manner into the future, if not for the balance of his natural life.

26. Mr. Benitez has also suffered permanent scarring and disfigurement.

27. Joel Benitez has also incurred past medical expenses which exceed the minimum jurisdictional limits of the court and in all likelihood, will continue to incur future medical expenses as a result of his injuries.

28. Joel Benitez has also incurred past lost wages and will incur future lost wages due to the injuries he suffered in this incident.

VIII. JURY DEMAND

29. Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury.

IX. REQUEST FOR DISCLOSURE

30. Under Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 194, Plaintiff requests that Defendant disclose, within 50 days of the service of this request, the information or material described in Rule 194.2.

X. PRAYER

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff respectfully prays that Defendant Tyson Foods, Inc., be cited to appear and answer herein, and upon final hearing, Plaintiff have and recover from Tyson Foods, Inc., compensation for past and future medical expenses, past and future pain and suffering, past and future emotional distress and mental anguish, past and future impairment and disfigurement, lost wages in the past and future, diminished earning capacity in the future, punitive damages, costs of court, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest in the highest lawful rate, and any further relief both at law and in equity to which Plaintiff may be justly entitled.

DEFENDANT'S ORIGINAL ANSWER

Defendant, Tyson Foods, Inc. ("Tyson") or ("Defendant"), files this Original Answer to the Original Petition and Request for Disclosure (the "Petition") filed by Plaintiff Joel Benitez ("Plaintiff") and states the following:

I.
GENERAL DENIAL

1. Defendant denies each and every, all and singular, the material allegations contained within Plaintiff's Petition and demands strict proof thereof.

II.
SPECIAL EXCEPTION

2. Defendant specially excepts to Plaintiff's Petition in its entirety because Plaintiff has pled for the recovery of monetary damages but has failed to specify the total amount of damages which he seeks to recover pursuant to the specific requirements of Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 47(c). Further, a party that fails to comply with Rule 47(c) may not conduct discovery until the party's pleading is amended to comply. Defendant requests that, after notice and hearing, the Court sustains this special exception and orders Plaintiff to re-plead and identify with specificity the total amount of damages sought in accordance with Rule 47(c). Should Plaintiff refuse or fail to cure this defect, Defendant prays that the Court strike Plaintiff's Petition in its entirety.

III AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

3. Pleading further, alternatively, and by way of affirmative defense, Defendant would state that in the unlikely event that an adverse judgment would be rendered against it, Defendant would respectfully request all available credits and/or offsets as provided by the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code and under Texas law.

4. Pleading further, alternatively, and by way of affirmative defense, Defendant asserts that in addition to any other limitation under law, Plaintiff's recovery of medical or health care expenses be limited to the amount actually paid or incurred by or on behalf of Plaintiff, pursuant to Section 41.0105 of the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code.

5. Pleading further, alternatively, and by way of affirmative defense, Defendant asserts that Plaintiff's claims, if any, for exemplary, punitive or other damages are barred, limited, restricted, and/or governed by the provisions of Chapter 41 of the Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code and any other applicable statute concerning the recovery of damages and the common law of Texas. Accordingly, Defendant specifically pleads the limitations, restrictions and/or bar on the recovery by Plaintiff of such damages in accordance with Chapter 41 and other applicable law.

6. Pleading further, alternatively, and by way of affirmative defense, Defendant pleads the defense of unconstitutionality, in that any award of punitive or exemplary damages would constitute the imposition of a criminal penalty without the safeguards guaranteed by the Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution of the United States and similar provisions of the Texas Constitution. Furthermore, the imposition of such punitive or exemplary damages constitutes an excessive fine under the Eighth Amendment, denies equal protection of the laws under the Fourteenth Amendment, and violates the due process clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. Defendant plead that any claim by Plaintiff for punitive damages should be stricken as unconstitutional and that any award of punitive or exemplary damages should be set aside for the reasons stated above. Defendant further pleads that Plaintiff's claims for punitive or exemplary damages should be stricken in the absence of Plaintiff making some prima facie showing supporting such claims.

7. Pleading further, alternatively, and by way of affirmative defense, Defendant asserts that Plaintiff's alleged damages, if any, were solely caused by the conduct of other parties, including Plaintiff, or alternatively, that the conduct of other parties, including Plaintiff, was an intervening and/or superseding cause of Plaintiff's damages. Therefore, Defendant is not liable for such damages.

8. Pleading further, alternatively, and by way of affirmative defense, Defendant asserts that Plaintiff's alleged damages, if any, were solely caused by Plaintiff's preexisting conditions which were a new and independent cause(s). Therefore, Defendant is not liable for such damages.

9. Pleading further, alternatively, and by way of affirmative defense, Defendant asserts that any damages sought to be recovered by Plaintiff should be reduced to the extent that Plaintiff has failed to take the reasonable steps that a person of ordinary prudence in a similar situation would have taken to avoid the claimed damages

IV.
JURY DEMAND

10. In accordance with Rule 216 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant demands a trial by jury.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Defendant Tyson Foods, Inc. prays that Plaintiff takes nothing by this suit, that Defendant goes hence with its costs without delay, and for such other and further relief, both general and special, at law and in equity, to which Defendant may show itself justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
